The Meeting

All is right with the world as our President was back at the podium running the meeting. DeAnn welcomed our guests Judy Giss and Keith Karmody from Beauty 360.

Dave Dinwiddie was back from Texas and was the first casualty with a $2 late fine.

Judy gave us a dollar now that spring has sprung.

Jim Packard thought our evening together starting with dinner at the Ragin Cajun followed by Clarinda Ross' presentation of Spit Like a Big Girl was a total success.

Don Freeman was back for another meeting. He spent a day at the DMV yesterday and passed the tests to renew his license.

DeAnn tossed in a buck for Don being here.

Gene Willis thought the NCAA finals were the best game he's seen in a long time. The game was close all the way to the end. Butler had a shot at taking the championship with a long jump shot that rimmed out at the buzzer.

Stan Ralls was happy he was not running the meeting since Madame President was here. He kept on trying to get DeAnn fined as her secretary listed Bob Freeman's was last Friday. We think she meant Don, however maybe she has an Uncle Bob who celebrated his birthday last week and thought we should join the festivities.

Keith has a dollar for us inviting him to the meeting. Little did he know we would ask him to work for his lunch.

Jeff Wilson was busy passing out photos of his kids professionally done by JW Party Pictures, including one on a coffee mug. Madame President quickly fined Jeff $10 followed by a second $10 because she needed photos of her kids.

DeAnn had a David story. Her son David thought he would get a prize if he advanced in his karate class. "Oh, no", mom declared, "I never would have said that."

Dave had a dollar for his week in Texas with his family.

Don Freeman had a catastrophic dollar. His daughter who was diagnosed with myeloma about six months ago passed a week ago. She was a teacher and very active in her community. Jeff noted that a parent should not have to bury his child. I'm sure we all believe this.

DeAnn changed the mood by mentioning that school was out last week and she spent the week with her kids, including an overnight trip to Legoland.

Dave went to the George H.W. Bush library and saw that they went through a recent renovation. There was a piece of the Berlin wall. Dave settled on $10 as his vacation fine.

The Program

Keith was conscripted to be our program. Keith is the Store Manager for Beauty 360 that opened up within the CVS Pharmacy on Rosecrans. The concept of these stores within CVS is new. This store just opened. Currently there are 21 stores nationwide. CVS has very ambitious plans and hopes to have 500 stores operating within three years.

Beauty 360 offers prestige and niche beauty products from around the world that are hand-picked to meet your needs. Keith feels their major competitors are the large department stores like Macy's.

I asked Keith if there was anything in his store for men and he confirmed he had a large selection of facial products and fragrances. Although, he did admit a lot of men wander into his store and leave quickly.

Keith was very generous by donating three $50 facials as door prizes.

Kiwanis Website

Please visit our website <http://www.mbkiwanis.com/> and complete your profile. DeAnn was surprised we found this photo that must have been taken when she was in high school. So the moral to the story is if you leave the photo blank, we get to post the picture that captures your best side. Jeff Wilson volunteered to post the most recent Kiwanis photo. Greg's photo shows the results of his latest hair styling.
