LAST MEETING

Paul Czarzasty introduced Sharon Connor from Wachovia Bank as his guest.

He also said planning has started for pancake breakfast to be held March 21, 2010.

Pres John introduced Tina Agati, Executive Director of Literacy Volunteers of Greater Waterbury. She talked about the history of Literacy Volunteers which started in Syracuse NY in 1962. The local chapter was started in 1974. She spoke about some of the programs and how they are customized for the local area and the students needs. They have partnered with PAL in the past and are mainly funded by United Way. This spring they are sponsoring "The Big Read" with groups discussing the book "A Lesson Before Dying" by Ernest Gaines.

In response to a question, Tina said the literacy education should begin as early as possible including singing to an unborn child by the mother.

She also recognized Bob Ashley as one of their newest volunteers.

NEXT MEETING

Speaker to be Lt Daniel Lauer, Waterbury Police Dept Community Relations Division.

RAFFLE was won by Mike Blumenthal who donated it back to the club.
