LAST MEETING:

Sue Pronovost, Director of Brass City Harvest, told us of her work in Waterbury. A major goal of the agency is to eliminate homelessness. They provide the intervention, supportive services, and clinical case management if necessary. They also provide work opportunities for some of the homeless. Brass City Harvest is also helping clean downtown areas. They have partnered with PAL in the past and will be running the Farmers Market on the Green this summer. In addition to their community gardening program, they are developing a fish farm.

NEXT MEETING:

Speaker will be Robin Cullen, Mothers Against Drunk Driving. She is the Victim Impact Panel Coordinator. The panels offer you the opportunity to hear, see, and feel how one poor choice has the potential to ruin lives forever.

RAFFLE:

Bill Campion donated his winnings back to the club.

ONE OF THE OBJECTIVES OF KIWANIS INTERNATIONAL

To provide, through Kiwanis clubs, a practical means to form enduring friendships, to render altruistic service, and to build better communities.

"It's kind of fun to do the impossible", Walt Disney
