One Can Make a Difference

Reminder-Talk to someone this week
about Kiwanis.

Katie Reynolds called the meeting to order, Mary Abbott led in singing, & Becca Mahnesmith led in the Pledge. Katie Reynolds & Mary Abbott played the piano. Roger Craddock (the "Good One") offered prayer.

Guests: Jack Reynolds introduced our guests. KHS Key Clubbers Amy Rodak & Madison Galloway-celebrating Key Club Week with: Mon.-locker signs; Tues.-candy bars to members during Home Room; Wed.-Board Meeting at Happy Joe's for everyone; Thurs.-new member pinning; & Fri.-everyone is wearing their Key Club shirts. Amy Rodak thanked Kiwanis for our support, she attended a leadership team building camp last weekend with 15 other Key Clubbers. WHS Key Club also is celebrating Key Club Week with: Mon.-wore shirts; Tues.-bring-a-friend to Key Club; Wed.-cookies; Thurs.-Teacher Appreciation; Fri.-Trivia Contest with participants either being awarded a "Smartie" or a "Dumdum" depending on their answers.

Announcements: Ashley Matuszyk asked for announcements. Lance D announced the Development & Growth Committee held a meeting today, have a plan laid out to boost our membership & excitement. He passed around the monthly list for members to submit names for potential new members. Jan M announced Courtyard Village is hosting an event about Senior Safety starting at 10:30 am on Wednesday, 11/10 with various community speakers. Lunch will be provided FREE by Courtyard Village.

Attendance: Jan M reported we had 33 members & 13 Key Clubbers for a total of 46.

Program: Marcus Minter read the word of the day. They put letters P-E-N-A-A on each table & gave cookies away to people who spelled "PAEAN" correctly. Katie Reynolds introduced WHS Key Clubber Monika Satkauskas to present the program. Monika has played the violin for many years, since she was 6 years old. She started taking lessons from local violin teacher, Constance Deahl, using the Suzuki method. Now she takes lessons from a teacher in Naperville every Friday evening. She has been all over the country playing & performing. She auditioned & was accepted as a member of the Chicago Youth Symphony Orchestra. They perform two (2) concerts annually (learn more at www.cyso.org). She acknowledged all the people that have helped her in her music studies including her friends from band & choir, some who were with us today. She entertained us with several selections. Katiria Diaz led in the Key Club Pledge & the Kiwanis Pledge.
