someone this week
about Kiwanis.

Lance D led the meeting to order & led in the Pledge & singing. Brock T provided piano music. Bob F offered prayer.

Guests: Central K-Kids- Adrienne Ray, Colton Johnson, Cole Vickrey, Josh Henkins-planning to help out with Pancake Day, planned an April clean-up day around the school. KHS Key Clubbers Victoria Walters & Madison Gallaway-helping at the Concert last Saturday night, will be helping at the Foundation Auction in a couple of weeks, held election, selling Pancake Day tickets, working on convention.

Announcements: Pancake Day is the 15th, regardless of what it said in the newspaper. Please put up posters wherever you can to help ease the confusion. If you have not received your Kiwanis shirt, give a call to Lance. The sign-up sheet is going around. Please make sure to sign up. Amron B announced in 1978-1979 Adam Lazar gave us the scrapbook from his year as president. Kiwanis Day of Service April 10th across the world – our project is to eradicate as much graffiti around town as we can in one day. We have identified locations & now we are contacting businesses & owners to get permission. Getting input on what products to use to clean off brick, etc. Kiwanis members will go around town with supplies to clean off the graffiti. We will send a sign-up sheet around after Pancake Day & we would like 100% participation. Brock T asked the Membership Committee to meet for a short meeting after the meeting today.

Getting To Know Your Kiwanis Members: Mike Y presented.
