One Can Make a Difference

Reminder-Talk to someone this week about Kiwanis.

Brock T & Rotarian guest Dave Sherrard entertained with piano & drum music. Lance D opened the meeting & led in the Pledge & in singing. Bob F offered prayer.

Guests: KHS Corbin Uitermarkt & Johnny Williams-planning Appreciation Banquet 5/3 & everyone invited, 5/4 blood drive, Mother's Day pins. WHS Key Club-Becca Mahnesmith & Kari Hagaman-working on Relay for Life, hat day to raise money, enjoyed convention. Melodee Y introduced Alexis Schmidt, prospective new member from Toulon, stays with an Aunt on Saxon Road. Brock T introduced his guest, Rotarian Dave Sherrard. May is membership month. Vic update-hospitalized last week with real bad lab work, infusions, has now gone home under hospice care. He is very sick. Be in prayer for him. Guest of speaker Mackenzie Shimmin.

Getting to Know Your Kiwanis Members -Mike Y presented. Color-red; Movie-any John Wayne western; (John S guessed Brock) Vacation Spot-anywhere but Pittsburg; Kiwanis Project/Event-Pancake Day; Food-everything on my plate; K-Family Members-all my children were members of the WHS Key Club; Surprise-when I was little, I wouldn't talk to anyone; Years in Club-not sure; Family-wife, Molly, 3 children. Brock T.

Announcements: Dave K announced Kewanee Community Food Drive is 5/8. Mike G announced next Adopt-A-Highway 5/8 too (so much easier than the Graffiti removal). KHS Key Club accepted a check for $1,237 in support-they have 48 paid members. WHS Key Club accepted a check for $1,263 in support of their 49 members. Dave K accepted $500 for United Way. Paul D announced 28th Annual Kiwanis Raffle 5/13/10 at the Elk's Club. Goal to raise $5,000. Appreciate Margaret G to be the co-chair (trainee to be chair in future). If you had a ticket last year, you have the right of first refusal. You will be contacted. Paul has reshuffled the "clients" between ticketsellers. If you bought a ticket, you will be contacted – perhaps by someone new. Approximately 70% of our Club membership participates.

Attendance: Mike G reported we had 24 members, 5 key club, 1 prospective new member, 1 speaker, 1 musical guest for a total of 32.

Happy Dollars: Mike G-$4 sorry to hear about Vic, guests, music-Dave makes Brock sound better, Amron; John S-for Dave to come back for lunch (John's guest); Margaret G-$3 Vic, program, music; Claudia B-music; Melodee Y-Julie's Mom very sick also-please pray for her; Mike Y-$2 Vic, graffiti removal finished up last Saturday – thank you! Everything is cleared off in town & we're watching to see if it comes back – appreciation to everyone for their help & diligence; Amron B-KHS Key Club good year Teresa Bryner, urge you to come to the banquet on 5/3 – let's give them ourselves as well to thank them, present Kiwanis Scholarship, will hear Johnny Williams award winning speech, Governor from Springfield, great night-let him know; Mark R-soccer report 1st grade tied 3 to 3, Carsten went out hurt, took one to the head, not really hurt but feelings hurt by Dad laughing, pre-school team lost, Luke also suffered a head injury because a big kid fell on his head, promised treats cured their ills; Dave Sherrard-Jazz Appreciation Month in April; Mike H-$2 music today, Vic; Bob F-happy for student & guests here today, music; Dave K-$5 thank you for 8 of 24 shifts covered, music with Dave Sherrard, thank you for United Way check, Vic, camper going out this week; Paul D-$3 Vic, happy for the music today, happy Mike Y thank you for the work you did for the major graffiti project, Raffle; Emily R-$5 program, music, $3 for Mike G for harassing her all the time; Lance D-$2 Vic, all our guests here today; Kristin K-$5 Melinda's program, VanUnnik family, Rotary breakfast, brother-in-law Nolan has another check-up tomorrow for his brain cancer – waiting to see what has happened, Head to Toe Health Fair 5/6/10 (rescheduled from earlier this year when H1N1 flu was a threat). $35

Program: Kristin K read the word of the day "ADJUIVANT" & then introduced Melinda Shimmin, FNP from the Family Health Clinic at Kewanee Hospital. She talked about improving your health & coronary artery disease. Total cholesterol should be less than 200. HDL is good cholesterol. To lower your cholesterol, eat oatmeal, walnuts & almonds, fish & omega-3 fatty acids (fish oil supplements are great but food choices better).
