HAPPY GROUND HOG
DAY

TONIGHT'S PROGRAM: Mr. Tom Scollins will discuss the State's Program for "Tabacco Use Prevention and Cessation". This program will establish community coalitions to work with counties, fund awareness, prevention and cessation, and manage a statewide quit line and program.

WHAT DO YOU THINK? We switched the day of the Oyster, Shrimp Feast from Tuesday to Friday. I heard of people saying they like Tuesday better than Friday. Should we change back to Tuesday? Should we think of changing from January, to say, March when there will be less of a chance of being snowed out? Make your wishes known. If you want to e-mail me, I'll keep count.

DON'T FORGET THAT WE WILL NOT MEET THE 3RD TUESDAY OF FEBRUARY. WE WILL MEET TUESDAY FEBRUARY 23RD.

PROGRAM FOR FEBRUARY 23^R : Don Dudey will speak on the topic of working with young and older children and the need to be aware of situations that could lead to accusations of abuse. The board of directors will ask that individuals sign a statement that they have not been involved in any situations or claims of abuse in the past. This is a CYA precaution!

KIWANIS HISTORY: Henry J. Elliott became the first Kiwanis International President from outside the United States. A member of the Montreal, Quebec, Kiwanis club, he served as International President in 1919-20. The first International President from outside the two founding nations was Ian Perdriau AM, a member of the Kiwanis Club of Melbourne, Australia, who served in 1994-95.
