NEWSLETTER -- February 23, 2010 ----- VOL. XIX, No. 08

Formed in November, the Sheffield Commission on Disabilities would have joined us tonight to introduce the committee and explain its purpose. The group includes Denise Rueger, Chair, Laura Grunfeld, Noah Parsons, Don Perry, and David Wells. Candace Parsons was to address one of the issues currently on the agenda.

The group will research local problems, advise and assist municipal officials, carry out programs, make policy recommendations, provide referrals to individuals and coordinate activities of other local groups organized for similar purpose.

This presentation is the second in the new schedule of programs at the 2nd and 4th meetings of Kiwanis each month. Next we have a visit from State Rep. Smitty Pignatelli on March 9; then the National Alliance on Mental Illness on the 23rd; followed by Long-Term Care on April 13; Egyptian exchange students on the 27th; and Big Brother-Big Sister on May 11.

Remember – if there are subjects or people you'd like to know about or hear from, let Dave Johnson, Smitty or JoAnn (our program committee) know of your desires.

Get ready for BUNCO

NIGHT this Saturday, Feb. 27, here in the meeting room at the Bridge, beginning at 7 p.m. This dice game is very easy to learn. It has four people at each table rolling the cubes and after each “bunco”, some players move determined by winning or losing pair, so you get to commingle with nearly all the players during the night.

The $10 ante fee goes toward the cash prizes at the end (usually 4 games) and contributes to the Soup Kitchen “kitty”. Even if you have never played, you'll enjoy the experience. Bring friends – a good way to introduce them to the club.

The 3 winners of our recent Scholarship Raffle have been paid. Matt

McDermott, our 1st prize man, chose the money over the truck, so Kiwanis should see a sizeable profit once again from this venture.

The four recipients of the Teacher

Grants have been notified of their awards. They must now submit an invoice or similar document to verify their purchases and then we send them the money.

We proudly recognize the following members who entered this world during the month of March: Dave Tully, 2nd; Bob Meyer, 8th., Paul Moritz, Jr., 13th; Denise Rueger, 25th; and the “triplets” – Tim Cavanaugh, Patricia Hardisty, and Al Trocchi on the 26th.
