Kiwanis is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to changing the world, one child one community at a time.

NEWSLETTER -- June 1, 2010 ----- Vol. XIX, No. 22

The meeting room here at The Bridge will be empty next Tuesday, the 8th, since we will all gather at the Town Park Pavilion to honor the Kiwanis 2010 scholarship winners. Festivities begin at 6 p.m. with a buffet featuring hot dogs, hamburgers, Nick's baked beans and a variety of salads and desserts. Soft drinks will also be available. Please see Anita Diller if you can bring a dish. The students and their parents are invited as well as all Kiwanians and spouses, friends, et al. See you there!

The Pittsfield Club has its Craft Fair and Flea Market at the Common Park on 1st Street this Saturday, June 5 from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. Hopefully some south county residents can attend.

Next Thursday, June 10, the Key Club at Monument Mountain holds their installation of new officers. They will feature a potluck supper and are hoping that some Sheffield Kiwanis members can furnish tasty dishes?? See Cathy if you can contribute. The affair begins at 6 p.m.

President Patricia is asking for any low growing (not high) flowering plants that members might contribute for the triangle around the ladder sign near the Sheffield Police Station.

The Little League schedule hasn't changed for the next few weeks. As mentioned last week, when we know the more certain dates in July, that schedule will be up-dated.

The game at the Town Park last Saturday was moved to Gt. Barrington – picture day. So, our Café crew got the day off.

This Saturday, the 5th, both fields are in use at 10 a.m. so there might be some decent business for a change. Perhaps we'll need more than a 2-person crew for this and June 12. The following Sat. (the 12th) there are games at 10 a.m. and 12:30 p.m.

The Flea Market at the Gt. Barrington Senior Center on the 12th will likely be too small – only 6 vendors so far. Our Café will probably not be needed so it can serve the Little League games at the park.

The Aktion Club plans a Tag Sale at the group home on the corner of Route 7 and Root Lane here in Sheffield. They would appreciate contributions from Kiwanis members. Drop off items at the house anytime. The Tag Sale happens from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Sat., June 12 (with a rain date on Sun., the 13th).

Kiwanis has been asked by the Gulotta family to operate the cash bar at Danny's wedding reception in the Berkshire School dining hall on Saturday, June 19. We will order the beer and wine and keep the profits (and hopefully tips) for the 4 to 10 p.m. event. Dick is already in touch with Domaney's with the details. We'll need a couple of bartenders – an easy gig with only beer and wine to handle. Any volunteers?

The Litter Patrol for this month is Thursday, June 17. Joining Ch. Steve will be George, the Hardistys, Denise, Smitty, Dorothy, and Marcia.
