NEWSLETTER -- June 15, 2010 ----- Vol. XIX, No. 24

_ To the left are pics from last Tuesday's Scholarship picnic at the Town Park. We have the "chefs" Steve & Jimmy, then the "chow" line and finally Joe's shot of 19 of the 27 award winners who were present. Thanks again to Anita and all who helped.

Yes, the Little League schedule is more than a bit confusing. Blame our "informer" in Gt. Barr. The "Play-offs" supposedly began yesterday and continue this week Wed. thru Sun. at 6 p.m. Then games resume on Tues., 22, and Thurs., 24 – also at 6. For the present, disregard the rest of June. The 10-yr-old tourney and the All Star games are covered on the new JULY schedule which was sent out.

There have been "surprise" squads on the fields as make-up games – like last Thurs. when our sheet said "no game" and Jim & Theresa ended up with 6 teams at the Park.

This is Litter Patrol week for June – on Thursday, 17th. The list once again: Ch. Steve, with George, the Hardistys, Denise, Smitty, Dorothy and Marcia. If you can't make it, we hope you have either found a sub or notified Steve at 229-8150. The squad meets at the National Grid parking lot at 5:50 p.m. for assignments and equipment.

The Gulatta wedding reception looms on the horizon this Saturday, the 19th, in the Berkshire School Dining Room. The order and arrangements for the bar supplies have been made, and we hope the evening is festive but "uneventful!" Splitting the double shifts from 4 until 10 p.m. are Patty, Dave Tully, Mark Raifstanger, George Olen, Nat, Dick and Joe.

The International Kiwanis Convention occurs next week in Las Vegas. From the 23rd thru 27th, the Finkles, Marge, Nat, Dick, Vesta, Sherry & Mike Kirchner plan on attending. Some business will be accomplished, but more than a little fun will ensue.

Dave Johnson has arranged for Eileen Farrell, the director of the South County Community Center, to be our speaker next Tues.

The Board of Directors held its monthly session this evening.

Last Thursday, the Key Club at Monument Mtn. installed their new officers for 2010-2011. The incoming co-presidents are Lilah Shepard and Antara Nader; VP Rachel Moriarity; Sec. McKenna Powell; Treas. Anna Campetti and Bulletin Ed. Katrina Rock. New members were also recognized.

Last Saturday's Aktion Club yard sale had to be postponed – the weather was the culprit!
