NEWSLETTER -- July 13, 2010 ----- Vol. XIX, No. 27

Candid shots from around the greens at last Friday's Annual Kiwanis Golf Tournament. Once again the committee's hard work resulted in an excellent event, the weather held off the rain storms, and thanks are directed at the non-playing Kiwanis volunteers with Sherry from Lee and some help from relatives.

REMINDER: The Lee club's Golf Tourney is coming up this Sunday, 18th, at the Greenock Country Club. Registration at 11:30 a.m., and Shotgun 4-person Scramble starts at 12:30 p.m.

The Little League season concludes this week with the final All Star Game –which should be played tomorrow. Is that the END???

The initial group of Berkshire Choral Festival singers arrived on Sunday for their week of musical rehearsals, preparing for the first concert this Sat., July 17th. The cocktail bar has been open daily since Sunday and the Concession Stand (in the same location) will be active for the Sat. concert.

Smitty & Jimmy will be organizing the parking crews for the 4 weekly concerts. It's all happening in a new location with new surroundings, so come enjoy the great air conditioned new sports arena on the Berkshire School Campus.

Our guest speaker tonight was Arthur Peisner of VIM who touched on motivation for fundraising.

Next Tuesday we will hear from Rachel Moriarty whom we sponsored as a student ambassador to Europe last summer. She will fill us in on those adventures.

Next week, on Thursday, July 22nd, Ch. Steve Shmulsky has called for the monthly Litter Patrol. He hopes to be joined by his wife JoAnn, Dave Johnson, Mark Raifstanger, Deb Wright, Mike Britton and Rene Wood. Austin Mooney was listed but can't make the gig. Any volunteers for his replacement?
