NEWSLETTER -- July 20, 2010 ----- Vol. XIX, No. 28

Our guest tonight was Rachel Moriarty who told of her Person-to-Person Ambassador tour of several European countries last summer.

Little Patrol happens this Thursday, July 22. Ch. Steve asks that these members meet him at the National Grid parking lot at 5:50 p.m. – JoAnn, Dave Johnson, Mark, Deb Wright, Mike Britton, and Rene Wood. Jake Raifstanger (a scholarship winner) is the sub for Austin Mooney.

The preliminary figures on the recent Golf Tournament indicate that the event earned just over $8,000! Great job again and

THANKS to all those who aided in the success of this venture.

The initial week of the Berkshire Choral Festival concluded on Sat. with the first concert (a very lengthy musical piece)! Parking turns out to be much simpler – at least for the sparse crowd for opening night.

The daily bar took in $1,312 for the week which is average for a relatively small group of singers. Sunday brought in a bigger group (over 200) and Davey Lew & the Dillers set a new bar record: $960. Thanks to the pub crews; they are adjusting to the new surroundings with ease.

The Sat. night food/drink concession had little business before the concert (the people still have to find us) but did better at intermission. The take was only $250. Thanks to Theresa, Phyllis and the Mulhollands who provided the food.

Smitty, Jimmy & Theresa were up early on Sunday to man the Kiwanis Café at French Park in Egremont for a horse show.

The Ladder Sign committee met after regular session tonight.

The Board of Directors' monthly meeting is next week on the 27th after the regular club session.

Climb the stairway to 2nd level- for the lounge area, which is very close to the Kiwanis Bar.

Where Davey Lew is ready to serve, as Theresa does on Sat., while the orchestra tunes for concert.
