Goodbye 2009

Between parties, shopping, wrapping, decorating, and all that, December flew by. Kiwanians managed, as always, to have a good time while remembering those who struggle, so we shopped, wrapped, and spread some cheer too. Marie led her Community Welfare Committee through the holidays. She shopped for hams and turkeys, as well as for presents. This year we helped make 5 families lives a little less stressful. And, of course, Sue's sister was a big part of our efforts, again. Yes, we sold wreaths. We decorated at the Tringos on Thursday and sold on Saturday. It was COLD that Saturday, just ask Peggy. Oh, wait - she was warm, the rest of us were COLD. Builders Club members, along with their advisor, Kim Kline, and our own Kevin G, sold hot chocolate while we kept Betty company as she sold wreaths. Or something like that.
