Meeting

Members – 17

Invocation: Rob

McCafferty

Guests – 1

Our speaker this evening was Jay Kegler from the Columbus Metropolitan Library. Jay gave us info on the services the library provides. He also stated there would be a levy on the ballot this November as they have had budget cuts over the past few years.

President Terry asked the club to support the SON free lunch program and provide over 200 students with school supplies.

We will also have a guest caterer on August 19. Please come and taste test with this catering service.

Reports on the fair are below. A great big thank you to:
Rob McCafferty for his daily operations and keeping the fair running smoothly.

Barb & Wally Cash for their trips each night to pick up cash and deposit AND for opening the Red Barn every morning!

Rod Garnett: for his daily support and covering of the shifts that were not covered.

Listening, not imitation, may be the sincerest form of flattery.

They are asking all clubs to donate school supplies – pens, paper, pencils, markers, colored pencils, book bags, binders, etc. Please bring the items between now and August 20 and Kim will deliver to their Bus on August 21.

Kiwanis is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to changing the world one child and one community at a time.

QUOTE OF THE WEEK

Respect for ourselves guides our morals;
respect for others guides our manners.

~Laurence Sterne

FRANKLIN COUNTY FAIR

Preliminary numbers are in: Profit from fair stands at $6,921.00. Hilltop will be purchasing the remaining sausages and brats bringing the net profit to 7483.00. This includes ice profits of $779. The fair committee had saved some money by purchasing buns from wonder ($1 a dozen) but some unforeseen expenses came up. The motor and fan blades were replaced on refrigerator truck. The expenses seemed high but that was because of all the ice McCafferty and Garnett sold.

Thanks to all for their help at the fair. It was a success because of each one of you....and your support.

BARN DANCE OCTOBER 16, 2010

You have all heard the stories about Phil’s new Pole Barn over the last year. Well, we have found a good use for it. Phil has offered it up for a good old fashioned barn dance. It will be a celebration to ring in President Ted’s year.

You may only come if you want to square dance, socialize, eat and have a good ole time. There will be more details later but please mark your calendars. You DON’T want to miss this one. Ed Loudenshlager will be the square dance caller and has promised he will work with all of the first timers in the square dancing arena. Put on those cowboy/cowgirl boots and join the fun!
