Openers

Our Circle K President Megan Markeleuski welcomed 55 members and 2 guests, which included herself, to our regular weekly meeting on February 22nd. It being George Washington’s birthday the song of the day was Yankee Doodle Dandy – all three verses. The singing was led by choirmaster Ted Iltis, with Erin Grier at the piano. The moment of reflection was offered by Bill Mallatt. He spoke on the character of both Washington and Lincoln. He also quoted from The Team of Rivals by Doris Kearns Goodwin. Goodwin wrote of the influence of Washington on Lincoln in regards to the keeping of the United States as one nation. Team of Rivals was the most recent selection of the Kiwanis Book Club. Bill Mallatt also provided the door prize won by our treasurer Chris Shanahan. It being the last Monday of the month, the Know Your Kiwanian segment of our meetings was presented by Matt Dew and Ken Groehler.

Program Notes for February 22nd, 2010

On February 22nd our meeting was conducted by our Circle K president. She was also our program presenter. Circle K was chartered at the University of Wisconsin-Madison in 1982, with our club as sponsor. Its current membership is 22. President Megan has been a member since she was a freshman on the campus of UW-Madison. Often times members of Circle K have been members of their local Key Club in high school. Our Circle K club meets every other Wednesday at 6:30 P.M. on campus. Meeting location is not the same each time. The club requirements are to be involved in two service projects per semester and to attend 5 meetings per semester. The club has had a variety of service projects over the years of its existence. Some service projects have been Habitat for Humanity, Red Cross Blood Drives, Youth parties at UW Children's Hospital, and tutoring. The club has 3 leadership chairs. These are K-family relations, fundraising and social. The district convention is scheduled for February 26-28th. Kaitlin Brendel past Circle K president is the current Circle K lieutenant governor. Our members are cordially invited to attend Circle K meetings and/or assist with their service projects. Joe Krzos and Matt Dew are our Circle K advisors. A Circle K club was recently formed at Edgewood College. The enthusiasm shown by Megan and the club members bodes well for the future of Kiwanis International. May our wonderful family continue to grow!
